

Haiku Poem

Today we saw how artists use and are inspired by nature to create art. Lloyd Blanks, the artist who created the needlepoint was inspired by the west Texas landscape. Today, we are going to write a poem about our landscape here in San Angelo. In order to do that, let's get a good view. Take a walk outside or look out your window!

Here is an example of a Haiku:

As the wind does blow

 Across the trees, I see the

 Buds blooming in May

I walk across sand

And find myself blistering

In the hot, hot heat

Falling to the ground,

 I watch a leaf settle down

In a bed of brown.

Name:

Title of Haiku:

1st line (5 syllables)

2nd Line (7 syllables)

3rd Line (5 syllables)
